

Fodey

Overview

Fodey takes student writing to the next level. It allows students to create a newspaper, talking squirrels, or talking tomatoes. Student can assume real life role of reporter and interview an author, a historic figure and publish a newspaper article.

Content Area/Grade Level

Grades 3-5, and Middle School

Lesson Ideas

Students may interview an author, community expert, or person of interest and write a newspaper article to summarize interview

Students may research a topic or event and demonstrate their understanding by creating an article

Students may create a short book summary using a talking squirrel or an animated tomato

Tip

Teacher will need to control the choices the students select.